Human Rights Teach In: "The One Sided Approach of The Good Samaritan"

"In recent weeks across the United States, workers have seen and heard a lot about political efforts to end unions and collective bargaining. We have heard much about how these established rights must be ended because they cost employers, government, and the public too much money. Now, in Indiana, we are hearing again that Indiana should be made a "right-to-work" state so that businesses can be more profitable and employees will have greater freedom at work.

If Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was still with us, what do you think he'd say about these attempts?"

Did you know that it is your Right to:

- *A Peaceful and Safe Community
- *Job/Work
- *Education
- *Excellent and Affordable Health Care
- *Collectively Bargain
- *Housing, Water, and Food

Come learn about these basic rights that all humans have, and how you have a role in defending them. Everyone should be able to benefit from these rights, not just those who can afford it.
